

Port Washington Public Library Oral History Collection

MAIN STREET SCHOOL

All interviews conducted 7/23/82

Total Interview Time: 5 hours. Pages: 51.

Allen, William T.
Doersam, Cynthia
Morgan, Eunice
Ross, Don
Ross, Marie Dodge
Sclare, Liisa
Seeber, Carl (1892 - 1984)
Vogt, Helen Morgan

These interviews were conducted with old-time Port residents who either attended or taught at the Main Street School in the 1920s-40s. Discussions of first impressions, educational features, colleagues, friends, teachers and principals, special theatrical and musical events.

Reminiscences of: William T. Allen, Cynthia Doersam, Eunice Morgan, Don Ross, Marie Dodge Ross and Helen Morgan Vogt.

Addenda: Discussion of architecture and history with Liisa Sclare, 1982.

Open.

Seeber, Carl (1892 - 1984)

Coming to Port Washington in the 1920s; connection to Superintendent Paul D. Schreiber at Bucknell; football; colleagues and students at Main Street School. Description of classes.

Reminiscences of: Gert Nicholl, Paul D. Schreiber

Jenkins

Family here in early 1900s. 8 kids went to Main Street School.