

Port Washington Public Library Oral History Collection

MEDICAL ORAL HISTORY PROJECT

Easton, Joan, M.D. (1932 -). Pediatrician. Part I.

Medical school: internships, Metropolitan Hospital, Albert Einstein Hospital. Welfare Island. Giving Shots. IVs. Changes in medicine: technology, diseases, treatments. Patient care: house calls, patient attitudes, challenges. Raising a family. Insurance. Home office. Hobbies. Port Washington Schools: nursing, students.

59 pages. Open. Interviewer - Sally Wendkos Olds. 2001.

Easton, Joan, M.D. (1932 -). Pediatrician. Part II.

Bolivia: experience, Cochambamba, Rotoplast, patients, natives. Facial reconfiguration: cleft palate. Medical care. Speaking Spanish. Dr. DeMuth. Influences: family, doctors, experience. Medical advances. Insurance. Advice: new doctors.

29 pages. Open. Interviewer - Sally Wendkos Olds. 2002.

Goodman, Edmund, M.D. (1908-2003). Surgeon.

Family history; Education: Townsend Harris High School; years at City College (NY), 1920s; medical school, Columbia University; medical technology; operating theaters. Living in London (UK), 1930s; WWII training. Friendships with Roald Dahl, Averell Harriman; summers in Port Washington; having a family; innovative medical procedures - electric gastrogram, pain management; fellow medical students; women in medical school; influential surgeons and teachers.

Reminiscences of: Dr. Joseph Bancroft; Prof. C.L. Foster; Dr. Alan O. Whipple; Dr. Gilbert Adair; Walter Rothschild Family; Averill Harriman; Dr. Alvin Barach; Marian Goodman.

60 pages. Open. Interviewer - Emmy Carras. 2002.

Hogenuer, Sarah, R.N. (1943 -). Nurse.

Education and early life in Washington D.C.; undergraduate training at Earlham College; Royal Melbourne Hospital in Australia; traveled around the world; Queensborough, 1980; St. Francis Hospital-Medical Surgical; C.W. Post, Master's degree; worked as a hospice nurse; memories of old patients; received the Dorothy Eastham Award in nursing school.

MEDICAL ORAL HISTORY PROJECT

55 pages. Open. Interviewer - Sally Wendkos Olds. 2002.

Mountain, John, M.D. (1908 -). Surgeon. Part I.

Memories of father, Steven V. Mountain, M.D.; early 1900s New York State medical practice; Physicians Home Movement; Mountain Clinic Hospital (Olean, NY) – origins, description, related facilities.

30 pages. Open. Interviewer - Emmy Carras, PhD. 2002.

Mountain, John, M.D. (1908 -). Surgeon. Part II.

Medical School, University of Buffalo, 1929-33; life and work as a general surgeon; WWII and military hospitals; move to Manhasset, 1946; description of medical services on the North Shore of Long Island (NY); founding physician, North Shore Hospital; organization and development of Manhasset Medical Center; growth of medical specialists; impact of antibiotics; tuberculosis work.

Reminiscences of: J.H. Whitney; Dr. Alfred North Stevenson; Dr. Eugene Calvelli; Dr. Ed Stannard; Dr. John Eckel; Dr. William Flynn; Dr. Robert Ackerman; Dr. Joseph Mellow; Dr. Byron St. John.

49 pages. Open. Interviewer - Emmy Carras, PhD. 2002.

Rogers, Charles, M.D. (1921 - 2009). Surgeon.

Naval service, WWII and V-12 program; naval hospitals; early years at St. Albans (NY) Medical Center; cancer specialization; the 'Kolf' kidney; evolution of new medical procedures; life-long career at St. Francis Hospital (Roslyn, NY); home life in Port Washington and memories of local physicians and health facilities; educational activities as chairman of Health Advisory Council, Port Washington (NY) Public Library.

Reminiscences of: Dr. Ruth Cudmore; Dr. Ed Stannard; Dr. Eugene Calvelli; Dr. Joseph Mellow; Dr. Stan Emerson; Dr. Ed Mannix; Dr. Guy Robbins.

71 pages. Open. Interviewer - Emmy Carras. 2002.

MEDICAL ORAL HISTORY PROJECT

Teitel, Maurice, M.D. (1926 -). Pediatrician. Part I.

Training at University of Lausanne and North Shore Hospital. Choosing Port Washington as a place to live. Founding of North Shore Hospital. Hospital food. Daily routine and house calls. Relationships with patients. Learning to give pain-free shots. Changes in the practice of medicine. Experience with Port Washington High School. Medical insurance.

50 pages. Open. Interviewer - Sally Wendkos Olds. 2001.

Teitel, Maurice, M.D. (1926 -). Pediatrician. Part II.

Breast-feeding. Changes in pediatrics. Chateau D'Oex. Children. Child Safety. Insurance. Medical training: North Shore University Hospital, Mt. Sinai Hospital, Albert Einstein Medical College, Queens General Hospital. Patients. Retirement: activities, experience.

16 pages. Open. Interviewer - Sally Wendkos Olds. 2002.

Teta, Joseph, M.D. (1912 - 2007). Internal Medicine.

Education and early life in Port Washington; college years, NY, Alfred University - Bachelor of Science, 1934. New York Medical School, 1938; internship in Newark, New Jersey; Grumman Aircraft doctor, home care and hospital work, police surgeon; involvement in football; memories of wife and family; memories of old patients; impressions of Babe Ruth, Perry Como and Frank Costello.

48 pages. Open. Interviewer - Sally Wendkos Olds. 2002.

Ufford, Elizabeth, M.D. (1909 - 2009). Pediatrician.

Growing up in Elmira, NY; family history; early medical training, Bellevue Hospital; internship at Columbia Presbyterian, 1938-40; role of women doctors; methods of diagnosis; various hospital appointments; Port Washington (NY) practice and home; North Shore Hospital, Manhasset (NY); working for Dept. of Health, Freeport (NY), 1969-73. Move to and involvement with Heritage Village (Ct.), 1975.

Reminiscences of: Dr. Rustin McIntosh; Dr. Karen Horneye; Dr. Ruth Cudmore

98 pages. Open. Interviewer - Sondra Astor Stave. 2001.