5 WEDNESDAY

LONG ISLAND AND THE GLOBAL ECONOMY: The second in a series of four discussions continues the focus on Long Island's economy and how events in a global society will impact its politics and social fabric. Martin R. Cantor, C.P.A., is an adjunct associate professor of economics at Dowling College. The third session is on Wednesday, June 2. Sponsored by the Friends of the Library. 2 p.m.

7 FRIDAY

SANDWICHED IN: George Washington's Long Island Spy Ring. George Washington was in need of good intelligence after he evacuated the Continental Army from New York City in September 1776. His disastrous loss at the Battle of Long Island in Brooklyn on August 27-28, 1776, and subsequent defeats north of the city forced him to retreat with his soldiers to New Jersey and eventually to Pennsylvania. Presenter Elizabeth Kahn Kaplan is an educator, writer, and lecturer about art, artists, and American history to both adult and school-age audiences. 12:10 p.m.

TRANSIT SOLUTIONS: Learn how to save money on gas and help the environment. A representative from Transit Solutions, an MTA program, will present an overview of the transit options available to Port Washington residents. Learn how to use the bus or train to get to work, the mall, the hospital or the doctor. Free maps and schedules will be provided, as well as individualized help for your specific travel needs. 1:30 p.m.

CLARA KLINGHOFFER: The Girl Who Draws Like Raphael. As a lifelong observer of a remarkable career, writer-director-cinematographer and Port resident, Michael Laurence will introduce the life and works of Clara Klinghoffer with a film screening and presentation. Reception to follow. 7:30 p.m. Story in this issue.

NEXT CHAPTER: A monthly discussion of current events. Join us from 10:30 – noon for a lively discussion – bring your opinions! Contact Lee Fertitta at 883-4400, Ext. 135 for additional information.

HYPERTENSION SCREENING: Free blood pressure screening conducted by St. Francis Hospital. 11 a.m. to 2 p.m.

12 WEDNESDAY

SCIENCE 104: Heat, Light and Sound. We all know that heat, light and sound are part of the human experience. But what are they, really? This lecture will explore these every day phenomena, providing a better understanding of what they are, and how they are perceived by us. Join Philip Sherman for an exploration of these elements. 4 p.m.

BOOK DISCUSSION: A discussion of The Year That Follows by Scott Lasser, facilitated by Lee Fertitta. 7:30 p.m.

THE PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB OF LONG ISLAND presents Musical Images, a digital slide presentation with music. Images are synchronized with musical selections to create an audiovisual extravaganza. Topics include the seasons, city life, world travel and humorous vignettes, with music ranging from classical to jazz and pop. 8 p.m.

13 THURSDAY

DIRECTOR'S CUT: Film expert John Bosco will screen and discuss Broken Embraces (Los Abrazos Rotos) (2009-127 min.). Blind screenwriter Harry Caine (Luis Homar) relates to his assistant Diego (Tamar Novas) the tragic story of his affair with actress Lena (Penelope Cruz), the mistress of Ernesto (Jose Luis Gomez), the wealthy man producing Harry and Lena's new film. Pedro Almodovar scripted and directed. In Spanish with English subtitles. 7:30 p.m.

14 FRIDAY

Luncheon moderator Susan Isaacs

BOOK & AUTHOR LUNCHEON: The Friends of the Library hosts its 41st annual luncheon at the Clubhouse at Harbor Links. 11:30 a.m. Story in this issue.

15 SATURDAY

PULITZER-PRIZE WINNING NEW YORKERS: Professor Peter West will lead a discussion of Vera (Mrs. Vladimir Nabokov) by Stacy Schiff, at this third session of the Reading and Discussion series. The last session in the series, on June 19, will explore Eden's Outcast by John Matteson. Supported by the New York Council for the Humanities and the National Endowment for the Humanities. 11 a.m.

16 SUNDAY

COMEDY MOTEL: John Morrison is joined by a band of spirited comedic storytellers including Comedy Central's Tom Shillue, Edinburgh Fringe Festival's Ophira Eisenberg and Manhattan Monologue Slam Champion Leslie Goshko. 3 p.m. Story in this issue.

17 MONDAY

GREAT BOOKS: A discussion of The House with the Mezzanine by Anton Chekhov, and Shilo by Bobbie Ann Mason. 1 p.m.

JULIE & JULIA (2009-123 min.). Director Nora Ephron also scripted this blend of two books, Julia Child's memoir My Life in France (written with Alex Prud'homme) and Julie Powell's Julie & Julia. Oscar nominee Meryl Streep plays Julia and Amy Adams is Julie; Oscar nominee Stanley Tucci co-stars as Julia's husband Paul and Chris Messina is Julie's husband. 7:30 p.m.

LIBRARY FOUNDATION meets. The public is invited. 8 p.m.

19 WEDNESDAY

"GOODBYE SOLO" (2008-91 min.). On the lonely roads of Winston-Salem, North Carolina, two men — ill-tempered old Southerner William and talkative Senegalese cab driver Solo — forge an unlikely friendship. Director and editor Ramin Bahrani (Man Push Cart, Chop Shop) scripted with Bahareh Azimi. 7:30 p.m.

LIBRARY BOARD OF TRUSTEES meets. The public is invited at 7:30 p.m.

20 THURSDAY

BOOK DISCUSSION: A discussion of On the Origin of the Species by Charles Darwin, facilitated by Lee Fertitta. 1:30 p.m.

3rd THURSDAY @ 3: Grant Wood. Iowa was the core experience in Grant Wood's artistic life. The return to his home state prompted his painting to take a distinctive turn toward regionalism. While Thomas Germano is on vacation, Barbara Applegate, director of the Hillwood Art Museum at C. W. Post College, will discuss the art, life and times of Grant Wood. 3 p.m. AAC

21 FRIDAY

SANDWICHED IN: Good Lessons from Bad Women. Dorothy Leeds takes her audience on an extended look at her life. From childhood to the current day, Dorothy illustrates how "bad" women such as Eve, Mrs. "Machine Gun" Kelly, Emperor Wu, Elizabeth Freeman and Mae West helped shape her life as an activist, entrepreneur, author and speaker. Multi-tasker Dorothy Leeds is the touring performer/producer of the one person show Good Lessons from Bad Women and the author of The 7 Powers of Questions. Her Broadway credits include Stop the World I Want to Get Off. 12:10 p.m.

NEIGHBORHOODS OF NEW YORK: Harlem. The transformation of Irish, German, and Jewish Harlem into an African-American Mecca began in the late 19th century. Join Ronald J. Brown for a virtual tour of this exciting neighborhood. Rescheduled from February 26. Sponsored by the Friends of the Library. 2 p.m.

23 SUNDAY

SOMETHING SPECIAL BIG BAND: Phil Costa leads a 17-piece Count Basie-style band, performing hits from Glenn Miller to Maynard Ferguson, Lionel Hampton to Harry James. 3 p.m.

24 MONDAY

AFTERNOON AT THE OPERA: La Gioconda. Amilcare Ponchielli, "the most important operatic composer between Verdi and Puccini," composed ten operas, though only La Gioconda remains in the international repertory. Composed in 1876, La Gioconda and Verdi's Aida (1871) are two Italian examples of operas influenced by, and modeled on the French Grand Opera of the earlier 19th-Century. There is little that is "happy" about La Gioconda, "The Happy Woman" of the title. Join Professor James Kolb for a spirited exploration of this classic opera. 3 p.m. MAC

"PRECIOUS" (2009-109 min.). Clareece Precious Jones (Oscar nominee Gabourey Sidibe), an obese, pregnant, inner-city high schooler, has an opportunity to overcome years of abuse at the hands of her mother (Oscar winner Mo'Nique) with the help of an understanding teacher (Paula Patton) and a no-nonsense social worker (Mariah Carey). Screenwriter Geoffrey Fletcher earned an Oscar for his adaptation of the novel by Sapphire. Director Lee Daniels was also Oscar-nominated. 7:30 p.m.

25 TUESDAY

A COMPETITIVE EDGE: Zelik Ziegelbaum will talk about self-motivating factors and offer tips for maintaining good health and a competitive edge. Sponsored by the Tepper Intergenerational Fund of the Library Foundation. 4 p.m. Story in this issue.

"COCO BEFORE CHANEL" (Coco Avant Chanel) (2009-110 min.). See how orphan Gabrielle Bonheur Chanel (Audrey Tautou), nicknamed Coco, rises from seamstress to cabaret performer to the mistress of a wealthy man (Benoit Poelvoorde) and lover of a poor man (Alessandro Nivola), on her way to become a revolutionary fashion designer. Director Anne Fontaine scripted with Camille Fontaine, from Edmonde Charles-Roux's novel. In French with English subtitles. 7:30 p.m.

26 WEDNESDAY

PORT WRITES: A group of welcoming writers discusses their work and how to get it published. Facilitated by Michael Chaplan. 8 p.m.

27 THURSDAY

HOW DO PRESIDENTS COMMUNICATE U.S. INTERESTS AT THE U.N.? A lecture by Dr. Meena Bose that explores the role of the U.S. Permanent Representative to the United Nations in presidential decision making related to foreign policy. Dr. Bose is the Peter S. Kalikow Chair in Presidential Studies at Hofstra University. Sponsored by the Friends of the Library. 2 p.m.

"THE SEPTEMBER ISSUE" (2009-90 min.). Icy fashionista Anna Wintour and her staff race to prepare the September issue of Vogue magazine. R.J. Cutler directed this documentary. 7:30 p.m.

28 FRIDAY

SANDWICHED IN: Prom Night in Mississippi (2008-89 min.). In 1970 the town of Charleston, Mississippi, finally allowed black students into their white high school, but the school board refused to integrate the senior prom. Instead, blacks and whites held separate proms. Twenty-eight years later, Charleston resident and Oscar-winning actor Morgan Freeman made an offer to the board: if they would let the students arrange one integrated prom, he would pay for it. Paul Saltzman's film reveals how events played out. This screening comes to us from Docurama, a source for outstanding documentaries. 12:10 p.m.

FILMMAKER DAVID GAYNES presents Keeper of the Kohn (2005-64 min.). Many challenges await 73-year-old Peter Kohn, a beloved collegiate lacrosse field manager who is believed to be autistic. As the team seeks a national championship, Peter must choose between his allegiance to the student athletes and his devotion to a cancer-stricken friend, all while preparing for his upcoming retirement. How can anyone, let alone Peter, negotiate such dramatic changes? David Gaynes' moving documentary launches a Sports Film Festival which will begin in June. 7:30 p.m.
