FRIDAY
SANDWICHED IN: Meet Lisa Grunbaum, author of “Eat the Week: Finding the Right Franchise Opportunity for a Sustainable, Healthy and ethical Meal.” 3 p.m. Story in this issue.

SATURDAY
NEXT MONTH: For information on a lively discussion of current events – and bring your ideas! 4 p.m. PG. 1:30 p.m. HAC

FRIDAY
SANDWICHED IN: Rodgers with a Lot of Heart. This talk focuses on the world of the spirits, from the ancient Babylonians of the 21st century. From the ghost of Peter Stone, who emerged from his tomb at St. Mark’s in the Bowery Church to haunt the bustling streets of Brooklyn in physical form to the latest HBO or Anne Rice novel, the spectral—and, almost the dead, once the dead, and the ghosts—dead and alive—mingle and celebrate during the Halloween season. Join Ron Brown for this spirited exploration of Halloween. 12:10 p.m.

SATURDAY
SANDWICHED IN: Halloween. The Witches, Goldibs, Ghosts and Spirits of New York City. Every culture celebrates the world of the spirits, from the ancient Babylonians of the 21st century. From the ghost of Peter Stone, who emerged from his tomb at St. Mark’s in the Bowery Church to haunt the bustling streets of Brooklyn in physical form to the latest HBO or Anne Rice novel, the spectral—and, almost the dead, once the dead, and the ghosts—dead and alive—mingle and celebrate during the Halloween season. Join Ron Brown for this spirited exploration of Halloween. 12:10 p.m.