YOGA. Registration begins today for a series of six Wednesday classes, running February 8 through March 15 from 10:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. facilitated by Donna Harrigan and open to all levels. The fee is $15 per week. For Port Washington residents, 9 a.m.

CHESS. Join us for a game Tuesday 2 to 4 p.m.

FILM MOVEMENT FESTIVAL: A series of indie features, foreign films and documentaries distributed by Film Movement. First, Zachary Tietz's Men Go to War (2010-97 min.). When Davis Geren's (Joseph Cross) young cousin appears on his doorstep one night, he discovers that a side of his family has been kept secret from him. After his visit, he travels to update New York to meet his other cousins. Also, Eva Riley's short, Patriot (2015-15 min.), about tensions in a British town. 7:30 p.m.

TUESDAY

YOGA. Registration begins today for a series of six Wednesday classes, running February 8 through March 15 from 10:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. facilitated by Donna Harrigan and open to all levels. The fee is $15 per week. For Port Washington residents, 9 a.m.

CHESS. Join us for a game Tuesday 2 to 4 p.m.

FILM MOVEMENT FESTIVAL: A series of indie features, foreign films and documentaries distributed by Film Movement. First, Zachary Tietz's Men Go to War (2010-97 min.). When Davis Geren's (Joseph Cross) young cousin appears on his doorstep one night, he discovers that a side of his family has been kept secret from him. After his visit, he travels to update New York to meet his other cousins. Also, Eva Riley's short, Patriot (2015-15 min.), about tensions in a British town. 7:30 p.m.

TUESDAY

YOGA. Registration begins today for a series of six Wednesday classes, running February 8 through March 15 from 10:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. facilitated by Donna Harrigan and open to all levels. The fee is $15 per week. For Port Washington residents, 9 a.m.

CHESS. Join us for a game Tuesday 2 to 4 p.m.

FILM MOVEMENT FESTIVAL: A series of indie features, foreign films and documentaries distributed by Film Movement. First, Zachary Tietz's Men Go to War (2010-97 min.). When Davis Geren's (Joseph Cross) young cousin appears on his doorstep one night, he discovers that a side of his family has been kept secret from him. After his visit, he travels to update New York to meet his other cousins. Also, Eva Riley's short, Patriot (2015-15 min.), about tensions in a British town. 7:30 p.m.

TUESDAY

YOGA. Registration begins today for a series of six Wednesday classes, running February 8 through March 15 from 10:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. facilitated by Donna Harrigan and open to all levels. The fee is $15 per week. For Port Washington residents, 9 a.m.

CHESS. Join us for a game Tuesday 2 to 4 p.m.