EVENTS

1 Monday

STAYING SHARP. Registration is in progress for four Thursday classes on June 4, 11, 18 and 25, from 2 to 4 p.m. This introductory program, grounded in research, emphasizes lifestyle habits and choices that are known to promote cognition and memory. It will utilize lectures, videos and brain exercises with a focus on the pillars of brain fitness, getting to know your brain, memory and the aging brain, and how to differentiate normal aging symptoms from signs of dementia. Participants can be of any age, but persons with recognizable dementia may not benefit from the required reading and brain exercises that address cognitive functioning. Class size will be limited to 15-20 persons to accommodate one-on-one instruction. Participants should plan to attend all four sessions. Presented by Dr. Constance Miceli, Ph.D in Gerontology and Social Work, and a member of the L.I. Gerontology Association. Co-sponsored by the Friends of the Library and the HAC.

TAI CHI. Registration begins today at 9 a.m. for seven Thursdays starting at 12:45 p.m.: June 11, June 18, July 2, July 9, July 16, July 23 and July 30. Presented by the Arthritis Foundation. Fee of $20 payable at registration. HAC
