

PWPL Earth Day Events

Join us at the Library for our Annual Earth Day celebration at the Library from 12:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. on Saturday, April 25. In addition, the Library will be hosting several eco-friendly events during March and April including Beginner Sewing: Reusable Bowl Cover, Raised Bed Gardening Workshop, Seed Giveaway, and many more!

Library Budget Vote & Trustee Election on Tuesday, April 14

Earth Day 2026 Celebration

Saturday, April 25 beginning at 12 p.m. • Lapham Room

PWPL invites you to our sixth annual Earth Day celebration! Bach to Rock bands will kick things off with live music from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. Representatives from the Town of North Hempstead, along with many Port Washington environmental organizations, will be on site from 2:00 to 4:00 p.m., sharing information about their latest sustainability initiatives. Bring your kids to create a fun, eco-friendly craft. The Library will also be offering environmentally conscious giveaways, including native plants. Most of all, discover meaningful ways you can make a difference in building a healthy, sustainable community. Earth Day celebration is funded by the FOL.

Tickets Available! Book & Author Luncheon

Friday, May 1 at 11:00 a.m. • The Garden City Hotel

Featuring: Emma Straub, bestselling author of This Time Tomorrow and All Adults Here. She will discuss her new novel American Fantasy (coming April 7), one of the NY Times' most anticipated releases of 2026, in conversation with acclaimed novelist Meg Wolitzer, author of The Female Persuasion and The Wife.

Tickets and sponsorships on sale starting March 1 at pwpl.org/fol or pick up a reservation brochure in the Library. Reserve early to guarantee seating!

Community Spotlight with Craig Thomas – In Conversation with Wayne Wink

Sunday, March 1 at 3:00 p.m. • Lapham Room

Port Washington's own Craig Thomas—co-creator of the Emmy-winning How I Met Your Mother—celebrates his first novel, That's Not How It Happened. This bighearted story follows a family upended when Hollywood decides to make a movie of their lives. Bestselling author R.J. Palacio calls it “a terrific reminder that truth is stranger than fiction—and the book is always better than the movie.” The Library is honored to host Craig Thomas in conversation with local official Wayne Wink. Thomas’s work has appeared in The New Yorker, The Boston Globe, McSweeney’s, and The Iowa Review. An Emmy-nominated songwriter, he has written for Sesame Street, co-founded the band The Solids, and hosts the podcast How We Made Your Mother. Books will be available for purchase and signing. Sponsored by the FOL.

Women's History Month Celebrations

Join us at the Library during the month of March to celebrate Women's History Month; an annual observance to highlight the contributions of women to events in history and contemporary society. (See pages 3, 8, 9, 10, & 12 for details.)

On View in the Adler Gallery

Victoria Selbach: We Are

On view March 4 – April 30

Reception: Saturday, March 14 at 2:00 p.m.

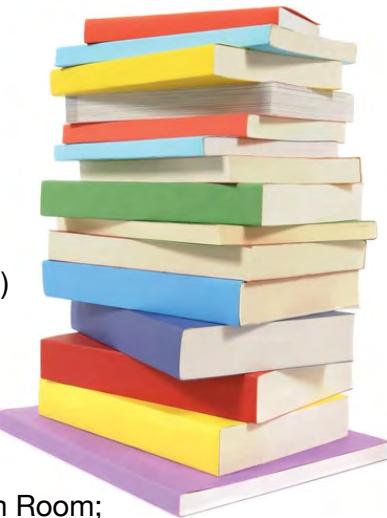

This exhibition features Victoria Selbach's vibrant We Are paintings—large-scale silhouettes formed from natural imagery that celebrate our shared humanity and connection to nature. The series encourages us to look beyond differences, unite in protecting one another and the planet, and inspire the next generation of caretakers.

A former Port Washington resident now based in rural Connecticut, Selbach is known for her empowering, life-size depictions of contemporary women. Her work explores personal identity, generational feminine legacy, and collective responsibility. She has exhibited internationally, including at the Heckscher Museum of Art, the Butler Institute of American Art, the Wausau Museum of Contemporary Art, and the Museu Europeu d'Art Modern (MEAM).

FOL Paperback Swap

Saturday, March 21 from 2:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m.

At this event, patrons of ALL ages — adults, teens, and children — share thousands of books. You don't need to bring a book to take a book!

Please bring:

- Gently used adult and teen paperbacks
- ANY children's books (paperbacks, hard covers or board books )
- No more than 20 books per person

Please do not bring:

- Adult and teen hard covers
- Books with loose pages, broken spines, water damage or mold
- Books are accepted ONLY during the event hours in the Lapham Room; please do not leave books outside the Library or in the lobby

History Center Spotlight

March is Women's History Month! The American Women's Voluntary Service (AWVS) was the largest women's service organization in the U.S. during WWII, providing vital support services such as message delivery, ambulance driving, firefighting, and emergency food services to a nation burdened by the war effort. The group had a chapter right here in Port Washington, and this photo, taken in 1942, shows local members of the AWVS with their mobile kitchen, which was set up outside of the Main Street School.

A Message from the President of the Library Board of Trustees

The Port Washington Public Library (PWPL) Board of Trustees presents PWPL's proposed 2026-2027 fiscal budget to the public. The Board has prepared this budget with consideration of current economic factors, requirements to keep our facility in excellent condition, and the vital needs of our community. This proposed budget includes only the fourth tax increase in the past eight years, therefore keeping the tax increase below the tax cap. Thanks to your continued support, along with the generosity of our donors, volunteers, and the dedication of our excellent staff, PWPL continues to fulfill its mission to be an inclusive center for community engagement, knowledge, and personal enrichment.

Here are just a few of the significant highlights from this past year:

- PWPL had 285,000 in-person visitors in 2025 who utilized our dynamic spaces for work, study and community connection.
- 228,500 print books and 105,000 eBooks were checked out, and the Library had over 250,000 visits to pwpl.org for research and access to digital resources.
- Renovations were made to 'The Lab', including updated furniture and design, a podcast studio, and a dedicated classroom for cutting-edge technology instruction and assistance.
- Upon receiving community and organizational feedback, a new strategic plan was established that will serve as the Library's north star over the next three years.
- Lifelong enrichment continued with more than 2,000 English classes, over 290 Children's Story Times, over 90 sessions of Books for Dessert (a reading club for adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities), over 40 musical events featuring first-class performers of all genres at the Library and Sunset Park, world-class lectures, exercise classes, cooking classes, and more.
- Manhasset Bay Boat Tours set sail again, allowing those without boat access to experience one of Port Washington's most special features.
- Cultural celebrations at PWPL included Hispanic Heritage Month, Chinese Moon Festival, Italian heritage programs, Japanese Spring Festival, Diwali, and Lunar New Year.
- 120 Homework Help sessions were offered, with sessions available for kids, tweens, and teens.
- Theater for Dessert, an offshoot of the Books for Dessert program, offered adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities the opportunity to bring books to life while learning theater skills from industry professionals.
- PWPL once again served as an early voting location, providing a convenient location for thousands of residents to actively participate in the democratic process.
- Popular services continued, such as one-on-one tech help both on-site and off-site; Homebound Delivery to bring Library materials to homes of those who cannot visit the Library easily; job and career training; notary services; and VHS to DVD conversion.
- The Library of Games and Gadgets expanded and continues to offer loanable Wi-Fi hotspots, musical instruments, lawn games, a paper shredder, pottery wheel, hiking kit, movie projector and screen, video game consoles, vinyl record player, and more.
- Digital content, such as eBooks, eAudiobooks, eMagazines, music, movies, training videos, and television shows, was made available through popular services such as Libby, Kanopy, LinkedIn Learning, Hoopla. In addition, we are pleased to now offer digital access to all sections of The New York Times, which include Cooking, Games, Wirecutter, Audio, and The Athletic.

As we look to the future, we strive to enhance the lives of our families, friends, and the Port Washington community. We welcome your suggestions and feedback throughout the year. Please come to PWPL to participate in our Budget Vote and Trustee Election on Tuesday, April 14, between 7:00 a.m. and 9:00 p.m. We thank you for your continued patronage and engagement.

Very truly yours,

William Keller
President, PWPL Board of Trustees

Women's History Month 2026

Volunteer Hero: Harriet Englander

At 91 years old, Harriet continues to inspire everyone in our ESOL program with her incredible dedication. For decades, she has volunteered tirelessly, helping students gain confidence and fluency in English. Her patience, kindness, and passion for teaching have touched the lives of countless learners, many of whom have gone on to achieve their dreams thanks to her support.

Even after all these years, Harriet shows up with a smile, ready to guide, encourage, and celebrate every student's progress. Her commitment reminds us that age is just a number when it comes to making a positive impact.

Residents of the Port Washington Union Free School District are entitled to a PWPL card, which may also be used at any Library in Nassau County. To apply for a card, stop by the Library with proof of residence or apply online at PWPL.org/Get-A-Library-Card.

Non-residents who work in Port Washington may also apply.

Vision: To enhance the well-being of every community member.

Service Highlight

Theater for Dessert offers adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities (IDD) the opportunity to bring books to life while learning theater skills. This is Theater for Dessert's fourth performance venture, following three years of hugely successful shows. Rehearsals begin in April, with a performance on Tuesday June 9. Visit pwpl.org/tfd for more information and to register. For any questions, call Kate Monsour,

Head of Adult Services, at (516) 883-4400 x1302 or email monsour@pwpl.org

LOGG Highlight

Check out some of the recent additions to our extensive collection which includes a mini pottery wheel, stitch gun, portable garment steamer, scan maker assistive reading device and axe throwing & archery game set. You may borrow up to three items at once. Reserve online at www.PWPL.org/LOGG up to 30 days in advance. Express copies are also available at the Circulation desk on a first-come, first-served basis. Sponsored by the Friends of the Library

Repair Café

We are collaborating with some of our neighboring North Shore Libraries for a Repair Café in the spring! The cafe will provide our communities access to experts who can help repair broken items as an alternative to tossing them out. Looking to get something fixed, or would like to volunteer? Our next event will be at the Bryant Library on April 25 from 1:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. Please visit bryantlibrary.org for more information.

Homebound Delivery Service

Reno Bracchi, Homebound Delivery Service coordinator at PWPL, has been providing Library materials to the homebound for almost a decade. "My goal is to not only provide excellent customer service and resolve any issues that may arise, but to build a positive, respectful and fun rapport with each homebound patron," says Reno. Reno handles all aspects of the service, from delivering and retrieving items to recommending items based upon a patron's taste for a topic or genre. Some great features are a two-week extension on every loan and no overdue fees. If you are interested in Homebound Delivery, please reach out to program coordinator Reno Bracchi at (516) 883-4400 (ext. 1407).
