An Insider’s View of the Legal Battle Against Book Banning

Sunday, January 21 at 2:30 p.m.
Lapham Meeting Room and on Zoom

(Please Note: This program was rescheduled from Sunday, November 19, 2023)

Join The Friends of the Library for a special program on the First Amendment, featuring two attorneys at the forefront, FOL Board Member Rebecca Hughes Parker and Michael Bamberger, attorneys at global law firm Dentons. They are on the legal team seeking to overturn the Arkansas law that allows criminal charges to be brought against librarians and booksellers. They will discuss the status of that case and other state laws around the country resulting in book bans and legal threats to libraries.

If you have previously registered for this event, please complete the new event registration form to ensure that you are registered for the new date. To register for the event, visit pwpl.org/events. For information on the FOL, email fol@pwpl.org

Citizens’ Policy Forum

Thursday, January 18 at 7:00 p.m. in Lapham Meeting Room

What can everyday citizens do when so much in Washington and elsewhere seems broken or dysfunctional? Join Rick Leeds, an independent policy researcher, as he moderates a non-partisan, fact-based discussion about process and policy issues facing our country.

The goal of this program is to empower citizens with accurate and up-to-date information. This first session will explore what is behind the high cost of health care and why and how it is the primary long-term driver of inflation. All political persuasions are welcome. There will be ample time for questions and discussion.
