The New Adult Learning Center is Open!
Ribbon Cutting Wednesday, October 2 at 12 noon

The new Adult Learning Center on the Mezzanine Level is officially opening. Please join us for a reception on October 2, at 12 noon, to celebrate with community members, volunteers, and Library staff.

The area was transformed over the past six months to include three new meeting spaces and two lounge areas to accommodate the Library’s growing program schedule. The Center will host English classes, technology workshops, writing classes, other Library sponsored programs as well as public meetings and events.

The creation of the Adult Learning Center was made possible when our Computer Center moved downstairs to our Lower Level Makerspace Lab at the end of 2018.

We are delighted that this space has been created to bolster our mission to be a center for community engagement, knowledge and personal enrichment.

FOL Paperback Swap
The Friends of the Library’s popular Paperback Swap returns on Saturday, October 19 from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. in the meeting room. Bring your gently used adult, teen and children’s paperbacks for a free, friendly swap. We accept hardcover children’s books including board books. Please no more than 20 books per person and no books accepted in advance. We stop accepting items at 3:30 p.m.

Save the Date: FOL U
The Friends of the Library’s “FOL University” scholarly lecture series returns on Sunday, November 10 at 1:30 p.m. with Russell Powell, Associate Professor of Philosophy at Boston University, and Paul Freedman, Professor of History at Yale University. Dr. Powell, who has appeared at FOL U twice before, specializes in the philosophy of science. Dr. Freedman, who was a featured speaker at the FOL’s Book & Author Luncheon in 2017, is a food historian who will speak on what we mean by “American cuisine.” Refreshments will be served.

Takes One to Know One
Susan Isaacs, Port’s own best-selling author, will discuss her brand-new novel, Takes One to Know One, at a special Friends of the Library program on Sunday, October 6 at 2:30 p.m. in the Lapham Meeting Room.

Described as Susan Isaacs at her formidable best, Takes One to Know One is Susan’s 14th novel; it will be released on October 1. The plot involves a retired FBI agent turned into a Long Island housewife who suspects that her neighbor is harboring criminal secrets. Advance reviews call Takes One to Know One “bitingly wry” and “ominously thrilling.”

Following the program, FOL invites the audience to a reception honoring Susan in the adjacent Karen and Ed Adler Art Gallery. Takes One to Know One will be for sale, and Susan will be signing.

Guests are encouraged to come early as seating is limited. Port Washington residents will be given priority until 10 minutes before the program begins.
Document/Electronic Shredding and the PWPL Tech Kiosk at Port Washington Adult Activities Center
Saturday, October 5 from 10:00 a.m. - 2:00 p.m.

PWPL is proud to partner with the Town of North Hempstead to co-host this off-site event at the Port Washington Adult Activities Center (formerly Port Washington Senior Center) at 80 Manorhaven Blvd. Please note this event is for personal items only — we are not accepting business items. This event offers three key components all related to helping you keep your information secure:
- PWPL Tech Kiosk
- Paper Shredding
- Recycling Scrap Metal and Electronic Waste Materials

PWPL Tech Kiosk
The PWPL Tech Kiosk will offer you an opportunity to ask questions about tech security and demonstrate some quick and easy ways to protect your digital privacy online.

Paper Shredding
A truck from American Security Shredding will accept paper only please! Personal Items Only - We are not accepting business items for this event."

Recycling Scrap Metal and Electronic Waste Materials
Arrow Scrap Corp. is a full-service recycler of all scrap metal and electronic waste materials. They are R2/RIOS certified, and fully NYSDEC and EPA compliant. They are also a NAID member, which holds them to the highest standards of handling and processing data-sensitive devices (such as hard drives, etc.). All materials collected are processed at their Holbrook facility, and handled in the most environmentally friendly manner, as per strict NYS regulations.

Arrow Scrap will accept the following for recycling:
- Computers, LCD monitors, printers, fax machines and any and all computer peripheral equipment. They accept hard drives, laptops, any and all computer components, as well as cell phones, tablet devices and any other consumer electronics equipment. They accept all types of wires, old adapters, lead acid batteries, rechargeable li-ion batteries (i.e. old car batteries) as well as general scrap metal (copper, aluminum, steel, stainless steel, small appliances) and car parts.
- They DO NOT accept any alkaline batteries (i.e. Duracell, Energizer), NiCd and NiMH batteries, any mercury containing devices, old CRT monitors, any old tube televisions and/or flat screen televisions of any kind. They do not accept closed tanks of any kind, or anything with oil, fuel or freon as well as any paper, rubber, garbage, paint, bio-hazardous, medical or general waste.

FOOD DAY
Thursday, October 24 at 7 p.m.

Join us for Food Day, a nationwide celebration of healthy, affordable and sustainably-produced food, and a grassroots campaign for better food policies. Nutritionist and program coordinator Jill Eisenberg, MS, RD, CDN, will focus on how to “eat real” and moderate the evening. We will screen “Food Evolution,” a 2016 documentary film narrated by Neil deGrasse Tyson, which uses the issue of genetically-modified food to spark a fact-based public dialogue about our food system. Patti Wood of Grassroots Environment Education will lead a discussion after the film and a local organic farmer will provide their perspective on GMOs. Food educator and whole foods chef Bhavani Jaroff will make a delicious ending to the evening by providing a cooking demonstration and tasting including seasonal organic vegetables.

Sponsored by PWPL Health Advisory Council.

MISSION STATEMENT:
The Port Washington Public Library is a center for community engagement, knowledge and personal enrichment.
2019 Writers and Workshops

PWPL has many exciting author events, workshops, and writing initiatives in Fall 2019:

Thursday, October 3
Homer Venters. Life and Death in Rikers Island
Pairing prisoner experiences with cutting-edge research into prison risk, Venters reveals the disproportionate extent to which the health risks of jail are meted out to those with behavioral health problems and people of color. He also presents compelling data on alternative strategies that can reduce health risks. This revelatory and groundbreaking book concludes with the author’s analysis of the case for closing Rikers Island jails and his advice on how to do it for the good of the incarcerated. 7:30 p.m.

Sunday, October 6
Susan Isaacs debuts her new novel, Takes One to Know One
Takes One to Know One is the first in the Carrie Geller series. According to the New York Journal of Books, Susan Isaacs’ novel is “Highly recommended for anyone who likes fast-paced storytelling, quirky and interesting characters, and a plot that keeps you guessing right along with the protagonist.” 2:30 p.m.

Wednesday, October 16
Jackson Bird Sorted
In partnership with LGBT Network.
An unflinching and endearing memoir from LGBTQ+ advocate Jackson Bird about how, through a childhood of gender mishaps and an awkward adolescence, he finally sorted things out and came out as a transgender man in his mid-twenties. 7:30 p.m.

Wednesday, October 23
Learn how Elizabeth Eulberg, author of YA favorites including The Lonely Hearts Club, Better Off Friends, The Shelby Holmes series, and her latest book, Past Perfect Life, became an author as she discusses her writing process, character and plot development, as well as writing without fear. Registration begins October 1 for Port Washington cardholders in grades 7-12. This event is co-sponsored by the Friends of the Library. 7 p.m.

Saturday, November 16
Patricia Schultz 1,000 Places to See Before You Die (Deluxe Edition, Travel) Patricia Schultz curates the world. When she published the original 1,000 Places to See Before You Die, she created not only a new kind of travel book but also a new way of thinking about our world. When she published the original 1,000 Places to See Before You Die, she created not only a new kind of travel book but also a new way of thinking about our experiences and interests. Now Schultz captivates our hearts in the same compelling way her original book spoke to our minds. Moving from eloquent word to breathtaking image, she takes us on a visual journey of the best the world has to offer. 2 p.m.

We hope you will join us for some amazing author events, and then feel inspired to write a novel or memoir of your own!

Jose Flores
Reclaiming a Lost Identity: Five Hundred Years of Resistance
Artist Reception October 13 at 3 p.m.

Jose Flores is a self-taught artist based out of Port Washington, whose heart and spirit remain rooted in his place of birth, Guatemala, the heartland of the Maya. His homeland has long and ancient traditions of the Maya which is where he draws his inspiration for his artwork. He pays homage to his ancestors and people by capturing their sacred existence with powerful, dream-like portraits. Rich and lively earth tone colors of blue and green splash behind colors of brown skin to capture the special relationship between indigenous peoples and Mother Earth.

Through his art, Jose revives his indigenous heritage and identity which has been in a 500-year-long battle for survival.

Gail Kolflat
In Our Time: Human Experiences
On view in Adler Gallery, October 2 - 30

Exciting colors and engaging themes draw viewers into the vibrant paintings of regional artist Gail Kolflat. The Adler Gallery will exhibit Kolflat’s eye-catching work which touches on themes of social commentary. Kolflat’s interpretation of Americana and genre painting is contemporary, and uniquely fresh, with distinctive hues and a stylish manner of presentation. Some works are multi-panel, large format compositions and have irregular shaped borders.

Gail Kolflat is a notable east coast artist, who returned to the exhibition arena in 2013 after taking a fifteen-year break while raising her daughters. She has long, strong exhibition history, and currently serves as the Membership Chairperson for the New York City Chapter of the Women’s Caucus for Art.
Priority seating at all events is reserved for Port Washington residents and cardholders.

Italian Films with Val Franco:
Ma, Myself and Her (Lo e Le)
(2015-102 min.)

On the surface, Federica (Margherita Buy) and Marina (Sarbina Ferilli) appear to have the perfect relationship, sharing a posh apartment in Rome, working dream jobs by day, and cozying up on the couch at night. But when attractive Mariana suddenly decides to get back into the movies and Federica — still questioning her sexuality — pursues a fling with a man, their commitment to each other is put to the test.
In Italian with English subtitles. 7:15 p.m.

18 FRIDAY
Sandwiched In: Rudolph Valentino
The name Valentino sent shivers down the spines of American women of the 1920s. Rebellious young women flocked to movie houses and were seduced by the magnetism of the screen’s first “Latin Lover.” Valentino lured the rags to riches dream of the immigrant. At a time when Italian Americans were subject to prejudice, Valentino changed the negative stereotyping of Italians in the movies, forever redefining our notions of love and romance. While women adored him, many men despised him as a thief of hearts. Containing over 100 slides interspersed with video clips and excerpts from his diaries, Marilyn Carminio’s lecture will show you why Valentino can still quicken the pulse of the modern viewer. 12:15 p.m.

Happy Birthday George C. Scott!
The Oscar-winning actor, born this day in 1927, stars in Gower Champion’s crime comedy Bank Shot (1974-83 min.) about a prison escapee planning his next heist. Screenwriter Wendell Mayes adapted a Donald E. Westlake book. 7:15 p.m.

19 SATURDAY
Applying for Jobs On-Line
Companies use Applicant Tracking Systems (ATS) to screen job candidates. Most resumes never make it through these systems. This workshop provides specific strategies job seekers can use to strengthen their resumes and make networking connections to get in the door for interviews. Presented by professional career counselor Karen McKenna and made possible by the Career & Personal Finance Center. Register online at www.pwpl.org/events 10 a.m.

Networking for Job Seekers
Networking is vital for career success, but many people are not sure how to network strategically. Participants will learn how to build professional networks by engaging with others. We will explore a variety of networking activities and how to create strategies that are tailored for each individual. Presented by professional career counselor, Karen McKenna, and made possible by the Career & Personal Finance Center. Register online at www.pwpl.org/events 1 p.m.

20 SUNDAY
Music Advisory Council Monthly Concert: Randall Goosby, Violin
See article in newsletter. 3 p.m.

Afternoon on Broadway:
The Evolving Sound of the Broadway Musical
We are happy to welcome back Stephen Nachamie, award-winning stage and film director (Broadway - She Loves Me), to look at works from Cole Porter to Lin-Manuel Miranda. This multimedia lecture will look at the change Broadway made on pop music, and that pop music then made on the Broadway sound. 3 p.m.

Writing Marketing Materials Workshop:
Best Practices
Whether you self-publish or publish with a small or large press, you will do most of your own marketing. At this workshop, author Natalie S. Harnett will help you get a jump start on the marketing materials you need to write or tweak the ones you already have. Natalie S. Harnett has an MBA from Columbia Fiction. Her debut novel, The Hollow Ground, won several prestigious awards including the John Gardner Book Award. Made possible by the Career & Personal Finance Center. Register online at www.pwpl.org/events 7 p.m.

Italian Films with Val Franco: Perfect Strangers (Perfetti Sconosciuti) (2016-97 min.) Seven long-time friends get together for a dinner. When they decide to share with each other the content of every text message, email and phone call they receive, many secrets are revealed. In Italian with English subtitles. 7:15 p.m.

23 WEDNESDAY
Check It Out: Breast Cancer Awareness

28 MONDAY
Savvy Social Security Planning
Learn the answers to all your Social Security planning questions: Will Social Security be there for me? How much can I expect to receive? When should I apply for Social Security? How can I maximize my benefits? Will Social Security be enough to live on in retirement? Presented by Cetera Financial Group and made Possible by the Career & Personal Finance Center. Register online at www.pwpl.org/events 7 p.m.

Italian Films with Val Franco: Palio (2015 - 91 min.)
Twice a year the Italian city of Siena goes crazy for the oldest horse race in the world, the Palio. This is not your average race – strategy, bribery and corruption play as much a part as the skill of the riders. Two faces away from beating the Palio world record, legendary rider Gigi Bruschelli will do anything to win. Cosima Spender directed this documentary. In Italian with English subtitles. 7: 15 p.m.

30 WEDNESDAY
Halloween Horrors: Pet Sematary (2019-100 min.)
Louis Creed (Jason Clarke) and his wife Rachel (Amy Seimetz) relocate with their two young children from Boston to rural Maine. The couple soon discovers a mysterious burial ground hidden deep in the woods near their new home. When tragedy strikes, Louis turns to his neighbor Jed Crandall (John Lithgow) to setting off a perilous series of events that unleashes an unspeakable evil with horrific consequences. Kevin Kolisch and Dennis Widmyer co-directed this remake of the 1989 Stephen King adaptation. 7: 15 p.m.
