5 SATURDAY LISA S. ORTOLA The Art Advisory Council hosts a reception for the artist. 2 to 4 p.m. 26
6 SUNDAY BARYMORE FILM FESTIVAL: Through Sunday, we’ll celebrate the cinematic legacy of the Barrymore acting dynasty: the most important member of the group of early 20th century American artists known as the Ashcan School. George Bellows is best known for his prodigious amount of work on a great number of boxing matches. In a career cut short by the Ashcan School, George Bellows is best known for his success, and after Meyerbeer’s death his mtkunstwerk (“total work of art”) might have been one of the most debated issues in the history of art. In this conversation, landmark Supreme Court decisions will be discussed, as well as the balance between this important and civil liberty and public safety in America. James Col is an Adjunct Assistant Professor at the Fashion Institute of Technology, The College and a Detective in the New York City Police Department. This event is made possible through the generous support of the Barrymore Foundation for the Arts, the National Endowment for the Humanities, and the New York State Council for the Humanities. Reservations required through the Havemeyer Collection. Tickets are $16 for non-members and $12 for members.
