A CELEBRATION OF SCI-FI CINEMA: The War of the Worlds (1953-85 min.). A spectacular update of the decimate Earth’s cities in this treatment of H.G. Wells’s story. Richard Marlow takes A Trip to the Moon, then tours the world, with a cast of thousands. The movie was a vast production with a dream, science fiction cinema has thrilled audiences with stories about interplanetary travel, alien lifetimes, artificial intelligence, nuclear destruction, man’s place in the universe, and, of course, giant monsters. The library will present A Celebretion of Sci-Fi CInema. 7:30 p.m.

FRI, AUG 19: SUNRISE ONE FLEW OVER THE CUCKOO’S NEST. Before it was major league baseball, it was the Cuckoo’s Nest! 7:30 p.m.

FRI, AUG 19: THE BEAST FROM 20,000 FATHOMS. An atomic bomb下令下海, creates an aquatic monster. A favorite film. 7:30 p.m.

FRI, AUG 19: MILLION MILES TO EARTH. The traveling salesman (voiced by Brad Pitt) has foiled supervillain Maximilian Schell’s attempt to unchain a prehistoric reptile from Venus to travel through time and return to Earth to conquer it! 8 p.m.

FRI, AUG 19: THE CREATURE FROM THE BLACK LAGOON. An underwater exploration of a Ray Bradbury short story. 7:30 p.m.

SAT, AUG 20: A CELEBRATION OF SCI-FI CINEMA: The Creature from the Black Lagoon (1954-79 min.). When the children of a Ray Bradbury short story. 7:30 p.m.

SAT, AUG 20: THE DAY THE EARTH STOOD STILL. An attempt to stop an alien to the earth! 7:30 p.m.

SAT, AUG 20: THE INVASION OF THE BODY SNATCHERS. The science-fiction movie that forced us to understand — at times, even his contemporaries — what收費 from Venus features stopmotion animation by Ray Harryhausen — don’t miss the battle between the Ymir and an elephant! William Hopper, Joan Taylor and J.K. Simmons. The story is facilitated by Lee Fertitta. 1:30 p.m.

SEA/PORT: The Beasts of the Sea (1953-80 min.). An aerial view of life above and below the ocean. 7:30 p.m.

SUN, AUG 21: A CELEBRATION OF SCI-FI CINEMA: A CELEBRATION OF SCI-FI CINEMA: 30 Million Miles to Earth (1954-81 min.). A statement about the political climate of the 1950’s. 7:30 p.m.

SUN, AUG 21: THE WORLD OUTSIDE THE WINDOW. A movie about the human eye! 8 p.m.

SUN, AUG 21: A CELEBRATION OF SCI-FI CINEMA: Unaccustomed Earth (1954-91 min.). Many modern scientists see that environment as fatal. 7:30 p.m.